No Matter What

No matter what's happened or what's going on;
No matter your past or
the struggles right now, your life has meaning and value to this world.
God never leaves you;
He never forsakes you.
You are His—His child, His creation.
He loves you simply for being;
He loves who you are.
I may not know what you're going through now,
But God does, and He's right there with you.
He's loving you, holding your hand,
bearing your pain.
He will help you through it all,
no matter what!
