Tonight, just 9 days after celebrating our country's Independence, we offer prayers for continued blessings as well as much needed healing for the brokenness we see in our current day. We recognize the importance of responsible citizenship. We embrace our baptismal call to give witness of God's love to all we meet within and outside the Church. And we implore the intercession of our Blessed Mother for every woman, man, and child who lives in this great nation so that all will come to know her Son.

The Glorious Mysteries

In the Name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, Amen

For the Conversion of our Nation's Capital: Apostle's Creed

For the Holy Father: Our Father

For Bishops, Priests, & Religious: Three Hail Marys

For the Conversion of our Country: Glory Be

The First Glorious Mystery: The Resurrection

Fruit of the Mystery: Faith

Meditation: "No one can rejoice more than I do at every step the people of this great country take to preserve the Union, establish good order and government, and to render the nation happy at home and respectable abroad. No country upon earth ever had it more in its power to attain these blessings than United America. Wondrously strange then, and much to be regretted indeed would it be, were we to neglect the means, and to depart from the road which Providence has pointed us, so plainly; I cannot believe it will ever come to pass. The Great Governor of the Universe has led us too long and too far on the road to happiness and glory, to forsake us in the midst of it. By folly and improper conduct, proceeding from a variety of causes, we may now and then get bewildered; but I hope and trust that there is good sense and virtue enough left to recover the right path before we shall be entirely lost." George Washington, June 29, 1788

For the President of the United States: Our Father

To be prayed before each Hail Mary: "We plead the Blood of Jesus over (state name) and every soul in that state."

The Second Glorious Mystery: The Ascension

Fruit of the Mystery: Hope, Desire for Heaven

Meditation: "It may be the will of Heaven that America shall suffer calamities still more wasting and distresses yet more dreadful. If this is to be the case, it will have this good effect, at least: it will inspire us with many virtues, which we have not, and correct many errors, follies, and vices, which threaten to disturb, dishonor, and destroy us. The furnace of affliction produces refinement, in states as well as individuals. And the new governments we are assuming, in every part, will require a purification from our vices, and an augmentation of our virtues or there will be no blessings... But I must submit all my hopes and fears to an overruling Providence; in which, unfashionable as the faith may be, I firmly believe." John Adams, July 3, 1776

For the Supreme Court of the United States of America: Our Father

To be prayed before each Hail Mary: "We plead the Blood of Jesus over (state name) and every soul in that state.

The Third Glorious Mystery: The Descent of the Holy Spirit

Fruit of the Mystery: Wisdom, Love of God

Meditation: "Review the great scenes of history: you will find mankind has always been obliged to pay dear for the blessings they enjoyed... The struggles of a great people have almost always ended in the establishment of liberty.... Such a people are spoken of with admiration by all future ages...." "Their souls glow with gratitude for the virtue and self-denial of their forefathers. They consider them as patterns for their own conduct on similar occasions and are continually pointing them out to the reverence and imitation of their children. These are the glorious effects of patriotism and virtue. These are the rewards annexed to the faithful discharge of that great and honorable duty, fidelity to our country.... I pray to God that the fair character I have described may be that of America to the latest ages." James Iredell, May 1, 1778

For the Senate & the House of Representatives of the United States: Our Father

The Fourth Glorious Mystery: The Assumption of Mary into Heaven

Fruit of the Mystery: Devotion to Mary

Meditation: "To the kindly influence of Christianity we owe that degree of civil freedom, and political and social happiness which mankind now enjoys. In proportion as the genuine effects of Christianity are diminished in any nation, either through unbelief, or the corruption of its doctrines, or the neglect of its institutions; in the same proportion will the people of that nation recede from the blessings of genuine freedom and approximate the miseries of complete despotism." Jedediah Morse, 1799

GOD BLESS AMERICA

God bless America, land that I love.

Stand beside her and guide her, through the night with the light from above.

From the mountains to the prairies to the oceans white with foam.

God bless America, My home sweet home!
