- The Decade Club is an opportunity to provide support over a ten-year period. With a pledge of $1,000 and an annual contribution of at least $100.

Additional Giving Opportunities

What is an IRA qualified charitable distribution?

An IRA qualified charitable distribution is a distribution from your retirement account to an organization like the National Council of Catholic Women. You may benefit from significant tax savings while making a gift to a charity you love.

What are the benefits?

- Your gift is not considered taxable income.
- Your gift may fulfill your required minimum distribution (RMD) from your IRA account without impacting your income.
- You don't need to itemize your taxes to receive this tax break.
- You can spread your gift between multiple charities.

Do I qualify?

Anyone age 70 1/2 or older can make an IRA charitable distribution. You can transfer up to $100,000 per year directly from an IRA to an eligible charity without incurring income tax.

How do I make an IRA qualified charitable distribution?

- Contact your IRA administrator and ask the gift be mailed directly to the National Council of Catholic Women or send a check from your IRA checkbook directly to the National Council of Catholic Women.
- Do not withdraw the funds and make the gift yourself or you will have to report the withdrawal as taxable income.
- Notify us so we can watch for your gift.
- Allow enough time for your gift to reach us.
