Friday, August 16 -- 7 to 9 p.m.

Discover the charm of Oklahoma City's Bricktown, a vibrant entertainment district nestled along the historic Bricktown Canal and just a short streetcar ride away from the Omni Hotel. Your ticket will provide you with a streetcar pass to take you to Bricktown where you will take a relaxing canal tour by boat, meandering through picturesque waterways while learning about the area's rich history and modern-day attractions.

You can choose to grab a bite before embarking on the canal cruise or have the trip start off the evening as you design a night on the town exploring all the Bricktown area offers. The night is yours to create and enjoy. Bricktown comes alive in the evenings with a host of fun activities. Whether you are looking for a cultural experience, culinary delights, or simply a relaxing evening with friends, Bricktown has something for everyone.
