

Tour of the Oklahoma City Memorial Museum and Visitor's Center

The events of April 19, 1995, changed Oklahoma City and our nation forever. By looking back to the example set in those decisive days, we can think forward to a better future for the generations that follow. Our visit will include a walking tour through the grounds with a National Park Service Ranger followed by a self-guided tour of the moving Memorial Museum and Visitor's Center. An all-day Streetcar pass is included with this tour package.

Cost: $30

Itinerary: Wednesday, August 14, 2024

9:15 a.m. – Gather in the hotel lobby immediately after the Welcome Liturgy.

With the Tour Hostess, take the Streetcar to the Memorial.

Take a walking tour through the grounds with a National Park Service Ranger (approximately 30 minutes long), followed by a self-guided tour of the Memorial Museum and Visitors Center.

Return to Omni Hotel via Streetcar when the self-guided tour is completed.

Note: If you are planning to attend the Awards Luncheon, please be sure to leave the Memorial grounds no later than 11:45 a.m.
