

OUR FOUNDATION – OUR FUTURE

NCCW - Serving Catholic women for over a century.

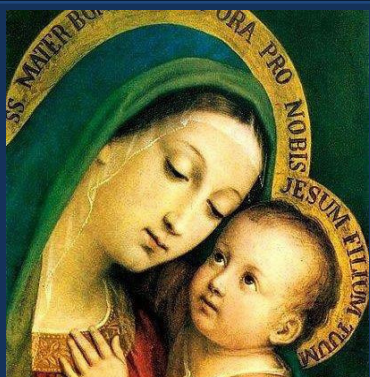

Beth Mahoney – NCCW President

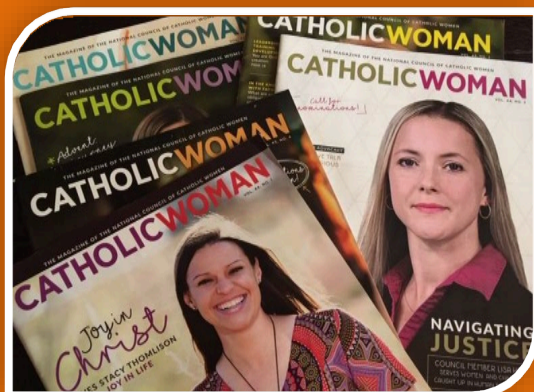

In March 1920, NCCW was founded under the auspices of the U.S. Catholic Bishops. They witnessed the important work done by Catholic women's organizations during World War 1 and had the wisdom to call for the founding of the NCCW to bring these organizations together. This gave U.S. Catholic women a unified voice, a national service program and the ability to reach out to each other through a national organization. The National Council of Catholic Women acts through its members to support, empower, and educate all Catholic women in spirituality, leadership, and service.

Through our many programs we...

- Transform the world through prayer and action.
- Support unified action
- Train women to become leaders in the Church and society.
- Provide a forum for Catholic women to speak and act.
- Represent US Catholic women in national and international arenas.
- Unite affiliated Catholic women's groups and individual Catholic women in the US.
