

One Vote Rule

NCCW follows the one person one vote rule at convention where voting occurs in person. Please be sure that the name of the current affiliate president and her contact information have been submitted to the NCCW office.

CONVENTION VOTING GUIDELINES

1. There is one vote per individual member at Convention.
2. An affiliate which is a parish, district, vicariate, deanery or diocesan organization current with their dues, receives two votes.
3. For the affiliates receiving two votes, each vote must be cast by a separate member of the affiliate attending Convention.
4. The affiliate president will name the two voting delegates for the affiliate.
5. Affiliate presidents will receive a Certification of Delegates form where they must list the two persons approved to cast the votes for their affiliate at Convention.
6. If an affiliate president is an individual member, she will cast one vote as an individual member and will assign the two affiliate votes to two affiliate members attending Convention, noting the names of those designated members on the Certificate of Delegates form.
7. The Certificate of Delegates form is found on the NCCW website, and one form will be sent to each affiliate president. Kindly ensure that the current affiliate president and her contact information are listed with the NCCW Office.
8. Members may not vote by proxy.
9. One person, one vote.

A Certification of Delegate form must have been submitted to the NCCW office 30 days prior to the start of convention.
